8. Superintendent's Report: Bruce Beasley

- Bruce was unable to attend the recent Holiday Concert at CES
 - The reports that Bruce heard was the concert was quite good
 - We have two new music teachers so there are going to be a few growing pains, but all in all Bruce heard it was a great event
 - The Chorus group will be performing in Pittsburg on 12/20/17
- It was great to have Caitlin Davis and Christine Brennan in attendance at the recent SAU 7 board meeting
 - Caitlin has a wealth of knowledge
 - Bruce is confident that everyone is on the right path
 - The plan focuses local resources, local opportunities and a clear roadmap for hiring of new staff and the establishment of new programs
- The basketball teams have a big week ahead of them this week
 - They are at Woodsville on Tuesday evening and then they will be home against Sunapee on Friday night
 - This will be a measuring stick for the Colebrook girls while the boys will be looking to get on the winning track
- First semester grades will be closing soon
 - All students are encouraged to dig in and finish up any outstanding assignments
- Bruce would like to commend Mark Fiorentino and the staff in both Colebrook Schools for how they pulled their crisis team together given the recent tragedy
 - The plan needs a bit of refreshing it served the purpose of pooling resources to assure that impacted students and staff had the support they needed
- Bruce saw Mr. Bartlett recently and he was very thankful of the opportunity for the downtown development group on the use of the Elementary School as their launch site for some Class C fireworks.
 - Mr. Bartlett shared the event was terrific and that the organization was very pleased with the turnout
- Bruce has been in contact with Mary Steady regarding the office rental at CES.
 - Mary will soon be leaving her position at the DOE
 - Mary shared that she is thinking everyone will be able to work this out prior to her departure
 - Bruce hopes to speak with her at a later date to iron the final details
