Public in Attendance: Ashley Haselton, Jeannine Brady, Buddy Trask, Makaila Weir
Jeannine and Ashley presented to the school board the Reading Street program. The reading program is already being used in grades 1 & 2, there are 6 books in the series. The reading program is a good tool that can be used at home and offer different worksheets for level readers. The presentation was very educational and showed how the teachers are planning on implementing into the school system.

Buddy Trask spoke on the importance of hiring an Assistant Athletic Director and went over the Athletic Director responsibilities. B. Beasley strongly suggest to hire someone within the school system.

J. Falconer / L. Whitaker made a motion to create the Assistant Athletic Director (Vote: Unanimous)

Colebrook Academy:

- Summer Learning Program
 - This year's summer reading program, students will be able to choose between several options
 - Option #1- read a book from the Summer Reading inventory, located in Mr. Stebbin's, Mr. Reeves's or Ms. Gaeb's room. In addition to the reading, you must also write a brief summary (1-3 sentences) of the book you read.
 - Option #2 – read two books from the same author from books in the school library or the adult section of the town library. Your choices must be approved before the end of final exams. You can read fiction or nonfiction, and graphic novels are permitted, subject to approval. Examples of authors are Stephen King, John Grisham, Nicholas Sparks, John Green, Jodi Picoult, J.K. Rowling, Suzanne Collins, Gary Paulsen, and David McCullough. In addition to the reading, you must also write a brief summary (1-3 sentences) of each book.
 - Option #3 – read 5 (5) children's chapter books (The Ramona series, Junie B. Jones, Ralph S. Mouse, Charlotte's Web, etc.). In addition to reading the books, you must make a list of the titles you chose, followed by a brief summary (1-3 sentences) of each book.
 - Option #4 – Read ten (10) magazine articles of at least one (1) page each. You can either choose articles from multiple issues of the same magazine, or articles on the same topic from multiple magazines in the same genre (style, photography, automotive, outdoors, etc.) At the beginning of the school year, you must turn in photocopies or printouts of the articles that you read.
